

AMC CORPORATE ANTI-CORRUPTION POLICY (Public Extract)

AMC has zero tolerance for corruption. Bribery, extortion or instigation of crime, influence peddling and facilitation payments are corrupt behaviors, therefore all Personnel are prohibited from engaging in any of these behaviors directly or through third parties or intermediaries.

AMC's guiding principles are closely related to emphatically and categorically rejecting any act of corruption, as well as any form of improper or dishonest behavior, in the public and private spheres.

WE ARE COMMITTED TO:

1. Establish prohibitions for all AMC personnel to engage in any corrupt conduct directly or indirectly, as well as negotiate with companies or individuals that do not share AMC's values or damage AMC's reputation, among others.
2. Establish obligations for all AMC personnel to carry out their activities in a fair, honest and open manner, complying with the provisions of the Code of Ethics and Business Conduct of AMC.
3. Implement financial controls so that accounting is performed in a manner that reveals any discrepancies and that measures can be taken to correct them, as well as non-financial controls to prevent, detect or manage corruption risks early.
4. Design guidelines on gifts, entertainment and hospitality, as well as donations, sponsorships, social and community investments, in order to set the guidelines and obligations that all AMC personnel must follow to adhere to internal and external regulations.

AMC personnel and its Subsidiaries, third parties acting on their behalf, representation and/or benefit (directly or indirectly) and third parties related with AMC and/or its Subsidiaries, are subject to this Policy.
