

AMC CORPORATE PRIVACY AND PERSONAL DATA MANAGEMENT POLICY
(Public Extract)

AMC establishes the principles and general guidelines on privacy and personal data management to ensure compliance with the applicable regulations in force. The privacy of personal data of our shareholders, collaborators, suppliers, customers, candidates and any other interested parties of whom we process personal data, is protected by establishing controls to prevent unauthorized or illegal use thereof as well as destruction or loss.

WE ARE COMMITTED TO:

1. Set out general principles regarding processing of Personal Data, which must be implemented in procedures involving the processing of Personal Data, in contracts and obligations acquired, in systems and platforms, among others.
2. Implement relative principles such as legitimacy, information, consent, lawfulness, quality, purpose, proportionality, loyalty, and responsibility in the processing of Personal Data.
3. Identify life cycle of Personal Data in order to establish the obligations of the various responsible areas and the conduct to be followed in relation to the processing and protection of the Personal Data collected.
4. Establish guidelines to exercise the rights of Access, Rectification, Cancellation and Opposition (also known as "ARCO" Rights), to ensure transparency for the Personal Data Holder.
5. Design confidential and secure means to report and raise concerns or complaints about conduct that goes against the provisions of this Policy, the values and standards of AMC.

AMC personnel and its Subsidiaries, regardless of their location or place of business, as well as third parties over whom it has control, including entities in which it has a minority position, joint ventures and all agents, consultants and other third party representatives acting on behalf of AMC and its Subsidiaries are subject to this Policy.
